GOING THE EXTRA MILE (GEM) AWARD

Cecil County Public Schools is comprised of countless employees who go above and beyond to support their school or department, their colleagues, our students, and our system as a whole. The Going the Extra Mile (GEM) Award acknowledges the service and dedication of those who make the extra effort to help others and the organization.

This award will be given several times each month and will be presented at the selected recipient's school by a member of the CCPS Leadership Team.

GEM examples would be individuals who:

- Provide a unique level of service that fosters the values of CCPS
- Volunteer to take on responsibilities with a positive and willing spirit
- Demonstrate leadership or an ability to motivate others in pursuit of excellence
- Consistently strive to help others in need in either a personal or professional capacity

Nomination Process:

The purpose of this award is to recognize employees of Cecil County Public Schools as seen through the eyes of their colleagues. As such, both the nominator and the nominee must be employees of CCPS. Applications are available on www.ccps.org and are submitted electronically via Google Form.

Selection

The GEM Selection Committee will select award recipients for each employee group. GEM awards will be presented according to a regular schedule.
