2020 TEACHER OF THE YEAR - APPLICATION PROCESS

Nominations are now being accepted for Cecil County’s 2020 Teacher of the Year (TOY) award. This program recognizes those teachers who deliver high quality daily instruction to their students and set high expectations for themselves, their students, and their schools.

Students, colleagues, parents, administrators, community leaders, and others are encouraged to submit the name of a quality educator who represents the best of the teaching profession.

ELIGIBILITY

Candidates must be full-time classroom, resource, or media teachers who spend the majority of their time teaching. School counselors are ineligible to participate.

Candidates must plan to teach in Cecil County Public Schools through the 2020-2021 school year.

Candidates must have completed a minimum of five years of successful teaching experience.

Candidates must be available to attend all county and state TOY events.

CRITERIA

It is essential to describe the qualities that make the candidate an outstanding educator. When completing this nomination packet, include specific examples of the candidate’s impact on students, other teachers, and the community (see attached scoring indicators). Candidates must participate in the completion of this application.

DEADLINE

Nomination packets must be received by February 28, 2020, at 4:00 p.m. The nomination packet must include: Part 1 form completed with original signatures; Part 2 candidate and nominator responses; and letters of support as required. Applications may be e-mailed to Kathye Olson (kolson@ccps.org) or uploaded to the Teacher of the Year 2020 file on the Google Drive. Paper copies are still welcomed! You may send or deliver the nomination packet to: CCPS, Division of Education Services, 201 Booth Street, Elkton, MD 21921.

QUESTIONS

If you have questions or would like clarification regarding any part of the nomination process, please call the Division of Education Services at 410-996-5464.

CANDIDATE RESPONSES

Candidates must submit a response for the three items listed below. All documents must be two typed double spaced pages in no smaller than 10 point font. Additional pages will not be reviewed. Responses will be scored (see attached scoring indicators) by selection committee members.

A. RÉSUMÉ

Beginning with most recent, please include: educational history; employment history; professional memberships and offices held; staff development leadership activities and training of future teachers; awards and other recognitions of your teaching; and community involvement.

B. PERSONAL FEELINGS AND BELIEFS

Describe a lesson that defines you as a teacher. How did you engage all students in the learning and how did that learning influence your students? How are your beliefs about teaching demonstrated in this lesson?

C. PUBLIC EDUCATION ISSUES

What do you consider to be the major public education issues today? Address one issue in depth, outlining possible causes, effects, and resolutions.

NOMINATOR RESPONSES

The nominator should secure no more than three letters of support for the candidate. Letters of support are limited to one typed single spaced page (no smaller than 10 point font) and should describe the outstanding qualities that make the candidate a model educator. The letters may be from principals, administrators, colleagues, parents, community leaders, and/or students. (Letters from students may be signed by more than one student.)

Additionally, the nominator must submit a response to the following two statements. Responses are limited to one typed double spaced page for each statement (no smaller than 10 point font). Additional pages will not be reviewed. Responses will be scored by selection committee members (see attached scoring indicators).

1. Describe how the candidate prepares students for success in a global society. Include examples of innovative instructional strategies, real world connections and diverse viewpoints, involvement of parents, and ways to achieve a positive learning community.

2. Describe how the candidate is a leader in the school community; demonstrates leadership at the county, state, and national levels; and demonstrates professional growth.

**********

The teacher selected as Cecil County’s Teacher of the Year will become the nominee for Maryland Teacher of the Year and will complete, with assistance from the CCPS Department of Human Resources and the Office of Public Information, the necessary nomination packet for submission to MSDE.
